Upcoming Intensive Talks! web event

Subject: The Daily 5
When? Wednesday, February 24th, 2016 at 15:45

Independence, Stamina, Foundation Lessons... These are a few important elements of The Daily 5. What do they mean and how can they be used in the ESL classroom?

In this one-hour presentation, we will look at the Daily 5, a classroom management structure that: encourages independence and accountability in students, provides abundant time for practicing literacy skills, and increases the time the teacher spends with students in small groups. This presentation will provide participants with the crucial elements needed to understand The Daily Five in order to successfully implement it (or parts of it) in any classroom. For more information, click here.

New video - What's new with the Intensive ESL Community

Check out the new informative video about the Intensive ESL Community. In 6 minutes, learn about the 3 tools that are available through the Community. Click here to view.

Visit ESL Blogs

Did you know... ESL Blogs and the Intensive Talks! web events are open to all ESL, whether it be Intensive, regular or enriched. Read about projects going on in other classrooms and share your projects with other ESL teachers in Quebec. If you've discovered a cool app or found a great activity idea, send it in and we will post it. Keep an eye open in February - we will be publishing an interview with a teacher who did a Balado/Podcast project with her Intensive ESL students.

Latest archived web event: Discover the Intensive ESL Community

In January, two web events took place in order to present the different tools available in the Intensive ESL Community. The web events are always recorded, then archived on ESL Blogs. To view the archives, click here.

WELCOME TO THE

INTENSIVE ESL COMMUNITY