

ESL Newsletter

IESL Community News

January 2019

We hope you had a pleasant and restful winter break. Here's to a New Year and a chance to try new things! We are continuously working on developing ideas and sharing resources. You'll be sure to find new and innovative ideas for your class. Read on to see what's new!

1

IESL Community www.intensive-esl.quebec

ESL New Year's Resolution: To join and use the IESL Community Platform. Here are some tags added to the new Home Page to help you find interesting links for your class :

New Year's End of the Year (for IESL changing groups
Groundhog Day

2

SPECIAL NEEDS IN ESL

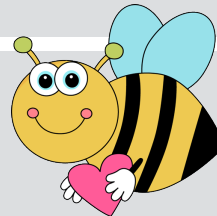

Service national
DOMAINE DES LANGUES

Find new ways to help your special needs students! This website created by the RÉCIT national - Domaine des Langues provides support to ESL teachers and their special needs students.

3

FREE OF RIGHT IMAGES

Looking for free of rights images for your Valentine's Day handouts? My Cute Graphics is a must!
OR initiate your students to Sketchnoting so they can create their own images.

4

STAY TUNED IN 2019...

Stay tuned for upcoming events and activities in 2019. Here is a sneak peek:

Intensig Spring Gig (date to be confirmed soon)
Junior Tech Challenge for Intensive ESL
The Linguistic Risk-Taking ESL Passport

STEAMING
in ESL

TECHNOLOGY with Nadia

Video production
(greenscreen and stop motion animation)

MATH

New Year's Math Activity

HÉLÈNE'S READING SUGGESTIONS for Kindness & Positivity

1. Ordinary Mary's Extraordinary Deed by Emily Pearson

2. Each Kindness by Jacqueline Woodson

3. Beautiful Oops by Barney Saltzberg

For more information

ealloul@learnquebec.ca
carolyn.buteau@learnquebec.ca

Visit our Past Newsletters for monthly activities.